

PEO STRI Omnibus Contract II (STOC II)

Scope: PEO STRI STOC II is the largest DoD multiple-award ID/IQ for training and simulation, and serves as PEO STRI and the Army's primary Simulation, Training and Instrumentation ID/IQ contract in support of customer training and testing requirements. These solutions will include procurement and/or services support of training and testing simulators, simulations, systems/devices, instrumentation systems, telecommunications systems, experimentation, targets, gaming, advanced simulation concepts, open architecture, common parts and component solutions.

("All But War is Simulation") STOC II stated objectives are:

- Facilitate the leveraging of programs and technology (to include Joint and/or Joint-related) in the best interests of the U.S. Army and Department of Defense;
- Prepare the Warfighter to meet the challenges of the future Joint operational environment; and
- Support continued growth in the interoperability of Live, Virtual, Constructive and Testing solutions to enhance training and testing capabilities of the Warfighter.
